As an agent we are exempted from liability and recourse in relation to the terms and conditions of each individual contract.

5. By entering in to a contract you are confirming that all details are correct and your own, you are also confirming that you are permitted under current UK law to enter into a contract and that you are 18 years of age or more.
6. Cancellations and amendments of or to your contract are strictly between you and the supplier. Please be aware of your rights in relation to each individual contract and your statutory rights which cannot be affected by any terms and conditions set out in suppliers contracts.
